

The STAR GAZING Awards for Incubator Managers 2016

ISBA star gazing awards for incubator managers who passionately and tirelessly work towards the nurturing and growth of startup ventures. The STAR GAZING Awards started in the year 2014, is a platform that encourages Incubation Managers to share thoughts and ideas on futuristic trends / current challenges / thematic areas in Incubation.

Soma has won the star gazing competition as part of the ISBA conference , being held in Pune. The competition was around out-of-the box solutions for sustainability of business incubators. Please join me in congratulating Soma.

Congratulations Soma!
