

Tips & pointers for starting up operations abroad for Indian entrepreneurs

When: Saturday, July 25, 2015 | Time: 10 am to 11:30 am
Venue: Training room, 100 NCL Innovation Park

Speaker's profile

Mr. SRIRAM M. BHAT
Founder & CEO of C-AC

Mr. Sriram is a serial entrepreneur and is Founder & CEO of Control-A Consulting (C-AC). Control-A Consulting was founded in New York City in the year 2009 and has established offices in India, USA and Europe. He has over 15 years of accounting & finance experience and has been associated with leading firms in India, Europe and United States. C-AC advises clients on key parameters while entering a new economy. Apart from helping the client get established seamlessly in a new geography, C-AC provides a host of value added services to ensure that the client is able to transition and scale up with relative ease and in a time bound manner. C-AC through its two offices in India - Bangalore and Pune, has a strong book keeping and technology team working on multiple resource-client engagements.

Register here: <http://www.venturecenter.co.in/networking.php>

10am-11.30am – Talk and Q&A session

12pm onwards – Mentoring clinics (by invitation only)

Highlights of the talk:

- Introduction to the various services offered by C-AC in the field of business advisory and handholding, market intelligence, transaction advisory etc
- Key pointers for entrepreneurs who wish to start business abroad.

Organized by

