

Engaging with Entrepreneurs Series presents

Culture Creation in Start ups as a Crucible for Success

Wednesday, 21 Aug. 2014 | 3pm-4pm
Training room, NCL Innovation Park

For more info and registrations :

<http://ewe-02.eventbrite.com>

Session will be conducted by Protima Sharma
Founder partner of PeopleWiz

Protima is a certified PRINCE 2 Practitioner and also holds a certification in Competency mapping.

As a founder partner of PeopleWiz, her responsibilities include overall direction, solution design and managing project delivery.

A Chemical Engineer by qualification, an MBA from Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore. Her HR career started with Thermax, Pune, a company known for its open culture and employee friendly people practices. After gaining experience in design and implementation of various HR processes and initiatives, she moved to a role of Business Change Management Consultant with Tata Consultancy Services (TCS). In TCS, she worked for various projects involving large scale changes with clients spread across the UK and mainland Europe. Over a career spanning close to a decade, she has worked in the Manufacturing, Utilities and Engineering sector implementing various people processes and managing large scale changes.